Rol,

I'm having a call with headquarters today to discuss contractor support of the meeting. However, I still have not heard that an official decision has been made. I invited you in case you just wanted join but I don't think it's 100% necessary that you do.

Thanks!

Meghan

Anything interesting come up in the Wednesday meeting? Sounds like no decision was made regarding a public hearing.

All,

I think some people are out on Fridays so I'm scheduling this meeting for Monday. My plan is for us to sit down and look at the "bins" I've put the comments in and see how we want to address what we currently have.

If/when we have a public hearing this list could change.

Thanks,

Meghan
